Questions and Answers.

At the meeting of business women at the Young Women's Christian Association Saturday, questions were given out and written answers were received, without signatures, from young women working in offices, stores and laundries, etc. The public will be interested to know some of these answers:

To the question, "Do you think the Young Women's Christian Association has meant anything to Clarksburg? If not, wherein has it failed?" The following are some of the answers given:

"Yes, it has provided lunch room and social room for girls. Our Young Women's Christian Association has meant to Clarksburg that the town is progressing and the townspeople should appreciate the fact. For the size of the building, we have not failed."

"To me, a girl living at home, but compelled to take her lunch down town, needs the warm friendship of girls in the few moments of recreation, and well cooked food. All of these I have found in our present Young Women's Christian Association."

"I think it has meant much even if it means much more in its strength. It has not enough social work."

"Our Young Women's Christian Association has helped me in a social way and given me a chance to read and study during the noon hour, after lunch."

"The question, 'What would you like the Young Women's Christian Association to provide for you? Enumerate.' The following interests were mentioned:

Reading room, a room especially planned for girls who wish to lie down and rest at noon, lunch room, rooms for social groups, a place where a girl can entertain her friends, summer camp, gymnasium, swimming pool, tennis court, a boarding house for girls away from home. Bible and mission study classes, domestic science, classes in home-making, outings, more social life and exercises, friendship circles and clubs.

Another question receiving interesting answers, was the following: "What would you like to do for Clarksburg through the Young Women's Christian Association?"

One question was answered with decided emphasis. "Do you think the time has come when the business women of Clarksburg should say they want, if so, will you help launch a greater Young Woman's Christian Association?"

Answer: "Most emphatically I do, and here is my heart and hand to help."

"I think that it is time for the business women to get busy and help themselves."

"Push ahead and not look backward."

"I think it is due time to make the Young Women's Christian Association a greater organization. Business women have enough cares with their work. A goodly amount of pleasure and of sports should be provided, but this in no way means dispensing with classes, for most classes will be appreciated and enjoyed by all girls."

The mass meeting for young women at the Masonic temple tonight at 8 o'clock promises to be most interesting. Miss MacCorkle will tell of successful methods in Young Women's Christian Association Work and will present the principals and ideals of the national movement, which Clarksburg wishes to affiliate with. All young women, business, teachers, high school, home, are invited to attend.

The Precise Meaning of and Cause for Cut Prices and Clearance Sales

By J. R. HAMILTON

Former Advertising Manager of Wanamaker's, Philadelphia

When you see a suit of clothes marked down say from $30 to $22.50, you generally assume that the merchant was overstocked. But when you see a cut price on a diamond or a dining chair or any other staple article less responsible for its sale to style, you are apt to question the legitimacy of that sale.

Therefore the following facts, which will be A, B, C to every buyer and merchant, will probably be interesting news to you.

Aside from the store that merely lies about its prices and the store that cuts the figures on some trivial article as a bait, there are four contributing causes for a cut price.

The cause which most people already understand, of course, is too much stock. No buyer can tell just what pattern of a suit or dress or what color in a fabric is going to be most popular. So when it is found that any article is not eagerly bought, it is quickly reduced in price. The reason for this is too evident to dwell upon.

The second cause is the financial one. Every merchant allows himself and each of his buyers just so much money for every stock of goods carried. For example, a shoe department which is allowed $10,000 upon which to do business must do business on that much capital. The buyer must be in the market for new goods at certain seasons of the year. If his capital is all tied up in old stock he will not be able to buy new stock. Therefore he must have ready capital even at the expense of profits.

The third cause is your mental effect on the people who have to sell the goods. The moment you, the public, do not buy a certain article, that article immediately loses value in the eyes of the man or woman who is selling it. Again and again the buyer is obliged to cut the price of perfectly good merchandise simply because you, the public, have made his salesforce lose faith in it. The moment you won't buy it they can't sell it.

The fourth cause is the interest on the investment. A store's money is made by the number of times it is able to turn its stock in a year. The greatest dread of any store is of stock which does not "turn." Some merchants have figured that it pays them to sell every article in their store at least once a year. And such merchants do this even with such staple articles of rising value as diamonds themselves.

These are the four laws for clearance sales and cut prices, and, knowing them, you should watch the advertising eagerly for the many advantages you are sure to find.

DRIVER OF FIRST HORSE CAR HERE

AT SEVENTY-FIVE FEELS BAD, HAS RHEUMATISM, STOMACH TROUBLE BUT TAKES TANLAC.

NOW FEELS YOUNG AND SPIRIT ONCE MORE HE SAYS.

"I praise Tanlac because I found it suited my troubles exactly and helped me where all other remedies failed," said Walter Burke, 83, 13th street, Wheeling, (seventy-five years old.) And who doesn't know Walter Burke in that town? Mr. Burke drove one of the first horse cars in that town away back yonder in the dim past and still is with the Wheeling Traction Company. "Yes sir, I found Tanlac exactly what I needed. I suffered from rheumatism and felt run down and generally poor. Had no appetite and was nervous because my stomach troubled me a lot. Pains in my limbs sometimes made me feel pretty bad and I was so nervous sir, I could hardly write. Then after eating my food wouldn't agree with me, so you will all agree I was in a pretty bad fix, but Tanlac pulled me out alright for now I enjoy a splendid appetite, stomach is O. K. and food agrees with me now. The rheumatic pains are all gone. I quieted my nerves and I feel younger and better in every way. I recommend Tanlac to anybody. It is a wonderful medicine that's all, and I can't say too much in praising it."

When one becomes as old as Mr. Burke they are apt to find difficulty in getting renewed the old energy, appetite, digestion and nerves steadied again, but Tanlac surely has proven in hundreds of similar cases that if given the opportunity, so anyone surely may very wisely accept the other's advice, particularly if they have taken everything else. Tanlac is recommended by thousands in this vicinity. It is $1 at Farrell's Drug Store, second door above Odeon theater.—Advertisement.

REMARKABLE IS GROWTH OF WESLEYAN COLLEGE

In the Last Few Years and It is Now One of the Leading Colleges in the State.

BUCKHANNON, May 9.—Figures that have been given out at the dean's office show that West Virginia Wesleyan college is very remarkable for the great growth that it has taken on in the last five years.

Five years ago the college freshman class numbered seventeen members, this year the college freshman class numbers one hundred and eight members. Five years ago there were only some fifty students doing college work at Wesleyan and this year there are two hundred and twenty-one students devoting all of their time to college work, that is, work on some degree.

These figures show that in the twelve years that Wesleyan has offered a college she has grown to a college that has a regular enrollment in her college department of 221. And that in the 26 years since the little Methodist school was started at Buckhannon it has grown from a school entirely devoted to preparatory work, to a college of no mean size.

The supporters of Wesleyan believe that this college is now entering upon one of the greatest periods of its history. There is great confidence manifested in its new president, and he is extremely popular with the student body, which means that he will be supported in his plans for the betterment of the school not only in Buckhannon, but all over the state.

While the freshman class of this year was by far the largest in the history of the school, there are already a large number of students who have expressed themselves as coming to Wesleyan next year. The president says that next year's class will be a much larger one than entered the college this year.

Great plans are being made for commencement this year, which comes the 16th to 21st of June inclusive. It is already assured that there will be the largest crowd of visitors present that there has ever been in the history of the school. There are to be visitors of prominence from all over the United States. This will be one of the great events in the history of West Virginia Methodism.
